- VR (voluntary return to PLEAD)

Box ten

The following statements may be used for any applicable claim.

If a member's orders state that they are a government charge card holder and the Approving Official has a valid reason why the mandatory split amount should not go to their card, it must be stated and signed off by the Approving Official. Also if member no longer holds a government charge card, the statement "not a GTCC holder" is a must.

The member must state if the period of the itinerary covers back to back orders.

Box ten

- Any other statements that the member or admin clerk may feel necessary for proper reimbursement of claim are welcomed, but must be endorsed by the approving official if notes are authoring further entitlements or direction.
- The more information that is given, usually decreases the chance a claim will be DN.
